Step 1: Check Your Refund Eligibility

Before proceeding with your refund request, it's important to verify whether you're eligible for a refund. KLM typically issues refunds under the following circumstances:

1. Flight Cancellation by KLM: If KLM cancels your flight, you are generally entitled to a full refund or alternative travel options.
2. Refundable Tickets: If you purchased a refundable ticket, you can receive a refund to your original payment method, even if you decide to cancel the flight yourself.
3. Non-refundable Tickets: If you have a non-refundable ticket, you may not receive a full refund. However, KLM may offer a travel voucher or credit for future flights.
4. Within 24 Hours of Booking: If you booked your flight directly with KLM and the cancellation occurs within 24 hours of booking, you can generally get a full refund without penalties, regardless of your ticket type.

Step 2: Visit KLM's Website to Request Your Refund

KLM allows you to request a refund through their website. Here's how you can initiate the process:

1. Go to the KLM Website: Visit www.klm.com on your browser.
2. Log in to Your KLM Account: If you have a KLM account, log in using your credentials. If not, you can still request a refund without logging in.
3. Go to "My Trip": In the top menu, click on the "My Trip" section and enter your booking reference and last name.
4. Request a Refund: If your flight is eligible for a refund, there will be an option to request one. Follow the prompts and enter your refund details.
5. Review the Terms: Carefully review the refund policy, including any service fees or non-refundable charges. KLM will show you whether you're eligible for a full refund, partial refund, or travel credit.
